Join Forces With Bold Raiders That Have Crossed Border--Kitchener Calls for Help.

Troops Going to His Aid From England--Several Battles Fought--Martial Law Declared.

London, Dec. 22.—"We understand that private cables address have been received from London," says the London Daily Mail, "the effect that virtually all the districts of Cape Colony in the vicinity of the Orange river are in more or less open revolt, and that there is likely to be sharp fighting on a rather large scale before the invasion is crushed. The tactics of the Boers in rallying as many as possible of the Dutch in the back country to their cause are proving successful."

From its Cape Town correspondent the Daily Mail has received the following: "The second invading force was designed to occupy Britstown, but, being checked by the Boer troops, it has disappeared into the Orangeburg mountains."

An enormous concentration of troops is being made upon the veldt country occupied by the invaders, but it is not likely that the Boers will offer battle on a large scale. There is renewed demand for the wholesale proclamation of martial law.

Martial Law Proclaimed.

Cape Town, Dec. 22.—Martial law will be declared in Worcester, Wellington and several railway washouts delay the movement of troops. It is expected that the Boers will start for the Transvaal tomorrow.

The Boers created a train at Barberton, killing an inspector and others.

Slave raids are continuing and practically all the Dutch sympathizers will join the rebellion, and that this will spread, although there is no fear as to the ultimate result, the lack of a sufficient number of mounted troops is feared by the British. The enormous waste of horses in South Africa was never fully appreciated until now.

General Buller, commander of the newly-raised Colonial division, has been ordered to the front and will start by the next train.

At Thornhill General French has routed 2,000 Boers, with four guns and a pom-pom. Thornhill is sixteen miles north of Cape Town.

The Boers who invaded Cape Colony had in most cases taken horses in addition to their arms and ammunition. They were in condition. They commandeered all possible clothing and stores at Ventersdorp.

TELLS KRUGER'S PLANS.

W. T. Stead Says He Still Seeks Arbitration.

London, Dec. 22.—William T. Stead has just returned from The Hague, where he has had a long conference with Mr. Kruger and has ascertained at first hand the views of Mr. Kruger and his counselors as to the present situation of the civilized world. Stead has written the following for the Associated Press:

"First of all, nothing is decided about his visit to America at present. President Kruger has not abandoned all hope of securing the support of the governments of the civilized world in his demand for arbitration. Until the last government refuses absolutely to say a word in support of the principles which they solemnly laid down at The Hague conference, Mr. Kruger will not participate in popular demonstrations. It is recognized that if he could shake the continent, the popular enthusiasm for him is as unparalleled since Garibaldi's visit to London, but until his diplomatic mission is exhausted, an appeal to the people cannot even be taken into consideration. Mr. Kruger is emphatic in disavowing any desire to involve other nations in war in behalf of the Boers. What he asks is that the governments which at The Hague declared their intention to use their efforts to secure amicable settlement of disputes by arbitration."

DE WET'S ESCAPE THROUGH BRITISH LINES A BRILLIANT MILITARY FEAT

Johnannesburg, Thursday, Dec. 20.—The details of General Dewet's escape from the general encircling British columns show that it was one of the boldest incidents of the war. When Haasbroek's command joined Dewet, Dec. 12, some 100 miles east of Thaba N'Chu, General Buller was ordered to open order and the Boer situation appeared desperate.

Dewet was equal to the occasion. Dispatching Haasbroek westward to make a feint at Victoria Nek, General Buller prepared to break through the British columns at Springbok Nek Pass, some 10 miles ahead. At the entrance were two fortified posts, while artillery was posted on a hill eastward, watching the pass.

Suddenly a magnificent spectacle was presented. The whole Boer army of 2,500 men started at a gallop in open order through the nek. President Steyn and

ARMENIAN CHRISTIANS ARE TORTURED AS FIENDISHLY AS IF BY BOXERS

New York, Dec. 21.—A dispatch to the Journal and Advertiser from Vienna says:

Further reports of the Turkish massacres of Christians show that their slaughter is a Mohammedan named Haiduk Islam, who brags of having slaughtered 200 Christians with his own hand. The Turkish authorities have shown utter indifference to the massacres and the outrages perpetrated on Christians are beyond description.

At Bitum men were crucified on trees with stakes driven through their hands and feet. Women were attacked and then mutilated. Children were murdered by mutilation before their parents' eyes. Women were maltreated at Grumma before the eyes of their husbands, fathers and brothers, and then carried into the bondage of harems. Men were done to death slowly by various means, their limbs cut off successively, and children were thrown into the river.

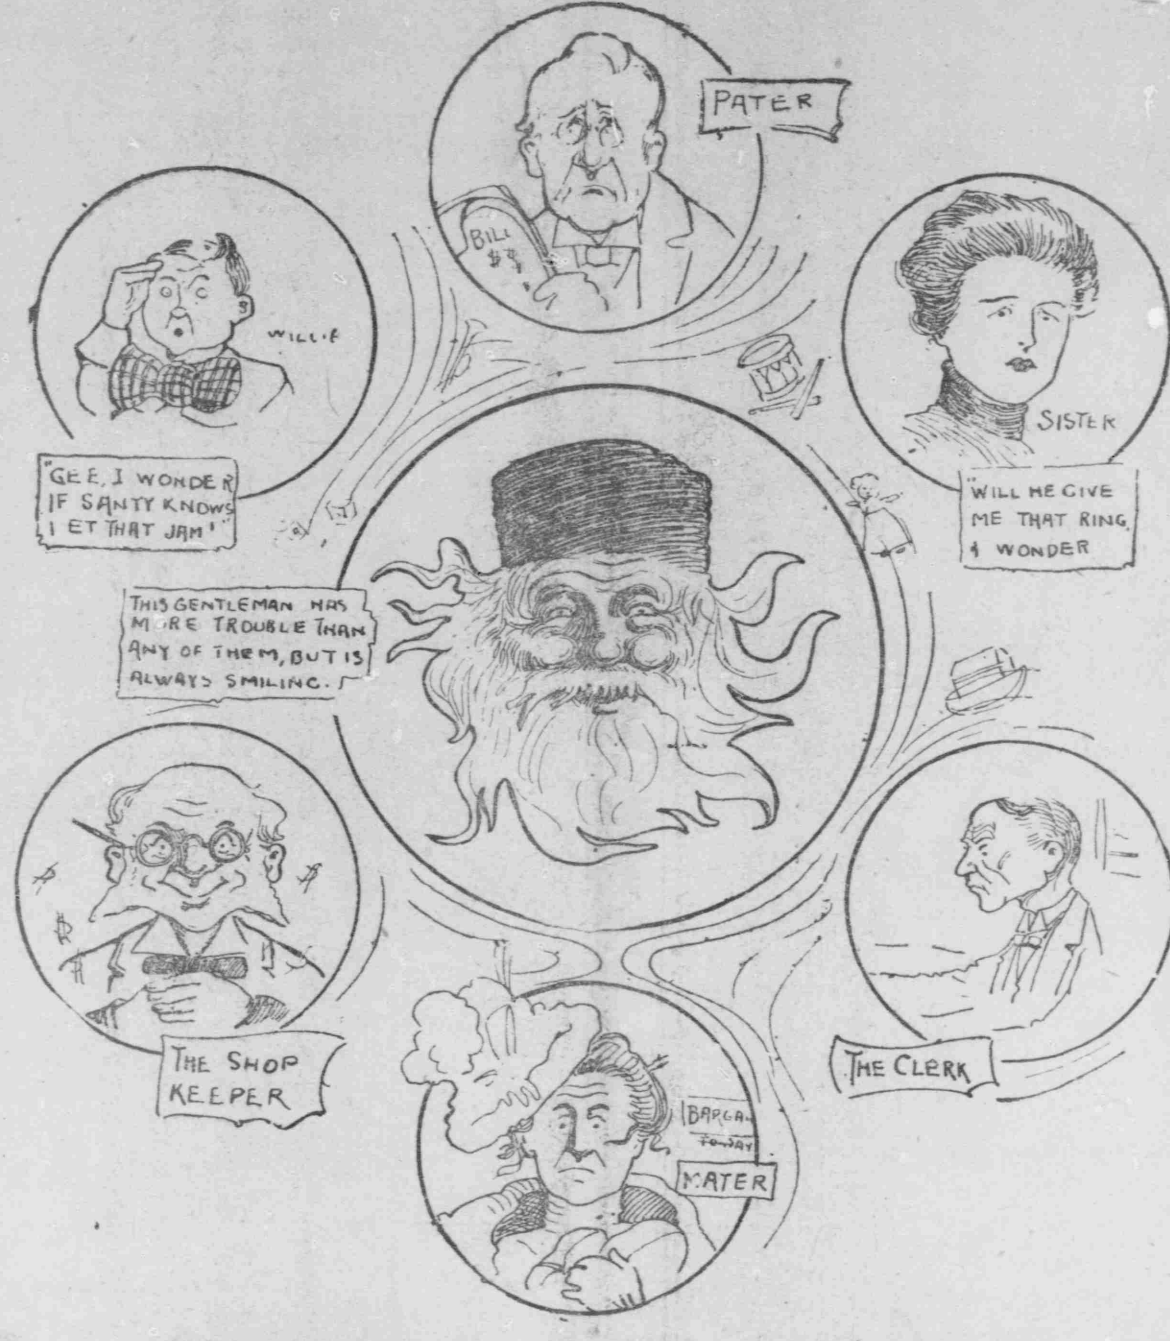

The flocks of the Christians at Rihartz by slicing flesh from all parts of their bodies before killing them. A Greek Orthodox priest was tied in a sack and pitched into the river at Genovitsa. The Serbian consul at Mitrovitsa estimated that 1,100 persons have been killed and 400 women attacked and placed in harems.

PLANS KURD UPRISING.

London, Dec. 21.—General Osman Pasha, who led the Kurd rising in 1878, says he is leaving London today to head another rising to free Kurdistan from Turkish rule.

"I hope for English sympathy," he said. "If not for more material support, in the struggle against the despotic Turks, who, dominated by Russia, have compelled the brave, warlike Kurds to act the part of assassins toward their brother Armenians."

REMORSE LEADS TO TALE OF CRIME

Murderers Confess to Slaying Defenseless Woman.

LOVE THE MOTIVE FOR THE DEED

Mystery Cleared Years Later by Deathbed Statements.

(Special to The Herald.)

Cheyenne, Wyo., Dec. 21.—Through a deathbed confession and the story of a woman, light has been thrown on the murder four years ago of Mrs. Ludwig Wurl, the wife of a wealthy German ranchman near Tie Siding, thirty miles west of Cheyenne. She was killed one evening while going from the house to a barn. The murder had used an axe with which he had hacked the body into pieces, leaving the bloody weapon sticking in the head of his victim. The murdered woman's husband and a hired man named Hans Delfs were supposed to have been on the road between the ranch and Laramie at the time the crime was committed. As the house was ransacked from top to bottom it was supposed robbery was the motive for the crime.

A year after the murder Hans Delfs committed suicide, and until this time the authorities had not secured a single clue that would solve the mystery surrounding the death of Mrs. Wurl, although some of the best detectives in the country were engaged on the case. On his deathbed Delfs confessed that he had inflicted his wounds because he had murdered a defenseless woman and could no longer stand the thoughts of the horrible crime.

A year ago word was received from South Africa that Ludwig Wurl, who had married Mrs. Kruger shortly after his arrival in South Africa, confessed that he committed the crime. His reason for wanting his wife out of the way was because he was in love with Mrs. Kruger, and the latter would have nothing to do with him as long as his wife was alive.

Mrs. Kruger learned nothing of Wurl's crime until the confession of the dying man, and like everyone familiar with the murder, supposed that Mrs. Wurl had been killed by highwaymen.

The Wurl and Krugers were among the most prominent citizens of the southern part of the state.

BILL IN FOR CLIFF DWELLERS' PARK

Washington, Dec. 21.—Representative Lacey of Iowa today introduced a bill providing for a "Cliff Dwellers' National Park." It provides for setting aside a large tract of public land in New Mexico for the purpose of preserving the pre-historic caves and ruins of the cliff dwellers and other relics thereon.

Mr. Pera of New Mexico introduced a bill authorizing the sale of certain New Mexican lands for the benefit of a territorial university.

CUDAHY BOY'S PRISON FOUND

Lonely House Discovered in South Omaha.

IDENTIFIED BY THE EX-CAPTIVE

Neighbors Tell of Acts of the Kidnapers.

(Special to The Herald.)

Omaha, Dec. 21.—Twenty-four hours' work on the part of the police of the city and half a hundred detectives has brought to light the location of the house in which Edward Cudahy, Jr., was held a prisoner for nearly two days and from which he was returned to his home in the city at a late hour Wednesday night.

The house is located four miles from the city and in a place of easy access, but so situated as to allow the kidnapers ample opportunity to lay and carry out their plans without molestation from inquiring neighbors. Within easy communication with rail and wagon roads leading in and out of Omaha and South Omaha and on a high knoll where sentries could give immediate alarm in case of necessity, the one and a half story shack had been admirably chosen by the bandits. No doubt exists in the minds of the police as to the identity of the place. Young Cudahy himself was taken to the house and identified many features which he had recognized while a blindfolded prisoner.

The testimony of the neighbors also is of a nature that leads the officers to believe they have found the retreat of the abductors. Evidence shows that the criminals made a hurried departure when their night's work was completed.

The house is at 304 Grover street, four miles southwest of the city. It is a two-story building and has the richly equipped kitchen and other features described by the boy.

Oaken Bucket Is Found.

On the second floor was found a new wooden bucket containing water from which the millionaire's son had quenched his thirst. About the room were found hundreds of cigarette stubs and burnt matches and a small quantity of sugar and coffee.

Eddie Cudahy, his father and several policemen entered the house and Eddie Cudahy pointed out the exact spot in the north room where he lay from the time he was taken to the house Tuesday evening until removed Wednesday night. He also said he had drunk from the oaken bucket which stood in one of the adjoining rooms. He also described the broken stair step which he had previously referred to, as he slipped in going up stairs to a room in going up stairs to a room in prisonment. Eddie Cudahy said he had reclined on the floor from the time he entered the house until removed. He said he was only about an hour, perhaps, going from the point where he was abducted to the house and about the same time in returning to the point where he was released and told to go home.

Kidnaper Described by Girl.

Miss Maude Munshaw, who lives with her parents at 2404 Grover street, first saw one of the occupants of the house about ten days ago, when he came to her home and asked if she knew whether or not the house was vacant above on the hillside that she did not know.

The next day he returned and told her,

SANTA FE STRIKE IS DECLARED AT AN END

Operators Admit Their Defeat and Are Formally Told By Officers to Seek Re-employment.

Road Officials Say Places Are Full and That They Are Through With the Organization.

Topeka, Kan., Dec. 21.—President Dolph, of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers, has declared the strike of the operators on the Santa Fe system off. All the striking operators have received orders tonight from President Dolph that the strike would continue no longer.

The operators are beginning to speculate as to whether they will be reinstated in the employ of the company. They now have the permission of the organization to work if they can secure work.

General Manager Mudge would not express an opinion as to whether the men would be re-employed or not. He said, however, that the Order of Railroad Telegraphers, but the committee organized under the present management.

"Let the operators get new officers," he said, "and then we will talk to them."

CALLED OFF ON GULE.

Strike is Declared to Exist There No Longer.

Houston, Tex., Dec. 21.—The strike of the telegraph operators on the Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe railroad was called off today. It was presumed that there would be issued at once an order calling off the strike on all branches of the telegraph system, but the committee of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers on the Gulf line has jurisdiction over Texas alone. The strike was begun in Texas fifteen days ago. No concessions were asked by the men or offered by the company as a preliminary to calling off the strike.

Following is the circular issued tonight:

Galveston, Tex., Dec. 21.—To members of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers and friends of the order, Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe railroad:

"After a most careful and earnest consideration of the entire situation your committee feels that it is useless to continue further the struggle inaugurated on the line of the Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe road. With the causes leading up to the most stubborn fight ever known in the history of our order you are familiar with the conduct of the campaign, you have been kept as fully advised as the facilities of your committee have permitted, and if we have failed in our desire to keep you as full touch with the system, it has been from lack of time and facilities. The neglects we have done our best and only regret that your effort and ours have not brought us the victory which we feel was deserved."

Looks to the Future.

"The loss of the battle or of a campaign does not indicate that the cause was wrong. History is laden with just such events, and out of our defeat it may be there shall come a victory for

GROVER CLEVELAND MAKES A SPEECH IN WHICH HE DENOUNCES TRUSTS

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 21.—Grover Cleveland tonight delivered the annual address at the graduating exercises of the thirty-first class of the Academy of Business at the Academy of Music. He said in part:

"The true golden rule lies at the foundation of all that makes life worth living, and is the parent of every success worth gaining."

"We hear a great deal just now in condemnation and defense of trusts and combinations. Quite lately a short article in opposition to them was sent me which I was informed was the result of much thought on the part of an able banker. As I glanced on it, my eyes fell on a description of a community of people whose wants were supplied by tradesmen and craftsmen who were their neighbors. They dealt together as friends and in each other's welfare and willing to yield something to each other's circumstances. This description was followed by an arrangement of combinations and trusts as destroyers of this happy situation by first monopolizing certain branches of the business done in the communities and then displacing with their stranger agents and representatives the dealers and craftsmen who were neighbors and friends. There may be much or little misfortune in such a change but I could not help feeling that the simple, naturally healthy life and let live conditions first received were worth perpetuating."

Continuing, Mr. Cleveland said the world owes us just such a living as we can gain by hard work, the exercise of our mental faculties, a scrupulous adherence to the rules of honesty and a never failing obedience to the dictates of enlightened conscience.

Mr. Cleveland emphasized the importance of self reliance and perseverance.

"We must exclude as our standard of success mere money getting for its own sake, he said."

A reporter for the Philadelphia North American tonight asked ex-President Grover Cleveland for his opinion on the ship subsidy bill, now pending in congress. He dictated the following statement, which he said contained all he cared to say in regard to the subsidy bill:

"In regard to this proposed subsidy I would refer you to my speech at the launching of the St. Louis. I then said something in favor of free ships. I have not changed my mind."

"With our much vaunted accession to a position among the world powers, I hope to see not so much, instead of more, of that sort of coddling with a less prominent place in the family of nations was claimed by some to excuse."
